Sales Tax - License

How long is my license valid for?

Colorado sales tax licenses are valid for a period of two years. The current two-year license period is from January 1, 2006 to December 31, 2007. The license fee of $16 is for each location. The Department cannot reissue a new license unless it has been renewed and the applicable fees have been paid. Allow 6 weeks to process your renewal form and payment before contacting the department. The DR 0594 sales tax license renewal form is available on our Web site at Sales and Use Tax Forms, and is available in the sales tax coupon booklet during the year before the next two-year license renewal period.
